

Hampshire College In/Justice Learning Collaborative
Spring 2021 Events

*Reflecting on 2020:
How Black Women Led Voter
Engagement Efforts to a Progressive Victory in Georgia*

With Malika Redmond
March 9, 4-6 pm - Zoom Link Below

Malika Redmond is a founding director of Women Engaged based in Atlanta, GA., an organization that creates opportunities for Black women and young adults to become involved in voter engagement and advocacy. Malika is also the board Chair of the ProGeorgia Civic Engagement Table, a coalition of over 30 voter engagement groups throughout the state to ensure access to the vote for historically marginalized communities. Malika holds a BA from Spelman College and MA from Georgia State University. She is most proud of her role as Mommy and Auntie!

Please click the link below to join the webinar:

<https://hampshire.zoom.us/j/96064306800?pwd=VVAzZlRoQWFIYm1rbVVmbXpaU3E5dz09>

Or join using: Webinar ID: 960 6430 6800 Passcode: 066220

Or iPhone one-tap :US: +13017158592,,96064306800# or +13126266799,,96064306800#

Or audio only via telephone:

US: +1 301 715 8592 or +1 312 626 6799

International numbers available: <https://hampshire.zoom.us/j/96064306800>

Contact Margaret Cerullo with questions: mcerullo@hampshire.edu

---

Check out these links on Malika's work in ProGeorgia and Women Engaged:

How Georgia Got Organized - The American Prospect

The Election in Georgia is about Reproductive Justice - The New Republic

Co-sponsors: Civil Liberties and Public Policy Program, Office of Institutional Diversity and Inclusion, Eqbal Ahmad Initiative